Instructions for completion

About the Pingat Jasa Malaysia

The Pingat Jasa Malaysia (PJM) is a special medal of service to eligible Australian Service personnel who served from Independence until the end of Confrontation in the security of Malaysia, with the Commonwealth Far East Strategic Reserve, during the period 31 August 1957 and 31 December 1966 inclusive.

Categories of eligibility

Category 1

- (a) Those members of the Australian Defence Force who were on the posted strength of a unit or formation and served in the prescribed operational area of Malaysia and Singapore, in direct support of operations in Malaysia for 90 days or more, in the aggregate, as follows:
- (1) Malaysia during the period 31 August 1957 and 31 December 1966 inclusive; or
 - (2) Singapore during the period 31 August 1957 and 9 August 1965 inclusive.
- Qualifying service between 12 August 1966 and 31 December 1966 may only apply if a member was posted for operations to Malaysia on or before 12 August 1966.
- (b) Those members of the Australian Defence Force who were on the posted strength of a unit or formation outside of the prescribed operational area above, but served in a secondary role in indirect support of operations in Malaysia for 180 days or more, in the aggregate, during the period 31 August 1957 and 31 December 1966 inclusive. (This is seagoing service with HMA Ships allotted to the Commonwealth Far East Strategic Reserve.)
- (c) Those Australian citizens who served in a civilian law enforcement capacity (police, home guard or security services) in the prescribed operational area of Malaysia only, in direct support of operations in Malaysia for 90 days or more, in the aggregate, during the period 31 August 1957 to 31 December 1966 inclusive.

Category 2

Qualifying service during the period 31 August 1957 and 12 August 1966 inclusive, as described in Category One, may be deemed to have been established notwithstanding a member of the Australian Defence Force has not met the qualifying period described if service was terminated due to the death, evacuation due to illness or injury or other disability due to service.

Verification of service

Although the PJM is a foreign award from the Government of Malaysia, all applications for the PJM will need to undergo a verification process by the Department of Defence in Australia to ensure that all information provided is true and correct. This process can be greatly assisted by applicants providing as much information about their service as possible, including service numbers, dates served in the prescribed area, etc. This will allow applications be finalised much faster.
